

FREEPORT WINS BY PLAYING BALL

KEPT IN THE GAME ALL THE TIME AND BEAT BROWNS HERE SUNDAY.

ST MARY'S 3 DIXON BROWNS 2

Was Interesting Game Throughout Victory Not Accomplished Until the Last Innings.

St. Mary's baseball team of Freeport demonstrated to a crowd of Dixon fans yesterday afternoon just why they are leading the Pretzel city league with a margin of games that will return them pennant winners. From the exhibition they put up against the Dixon Browns, whom they trimmed, 3 to 2, in a mighty interesting contest, it is evident that the "Germans" (notice their names) win their games by playing baseball all the time they are at it. They did that yesterday, and by taking advantage of the few slips of the Browns, beat Deerfoot Joe Valle's players by the score afore set forth.

But it really was a good game to watch and the Browns played some classy ball at times; had it not been for a lucky double play in the seventh when the debutantes were hard at work, "we" might have shoved over enough runs to win. But that greatest word in the English language—excuse us, girls, it isn't "love," it's "if"—enters into the argument there wherefore and because of which facts this will be better reading.

St. Mary's Score.

The visitors started right after things, and believe us, it looked for a while as if they were going to take everything in sight the very first inning. R. Waldecker—there are 'steen sets of brothers on the Freeport team—slammed a single into left. His affectionate brother O. forced him at second, but O. was safe at first. D. Grant singled with precision into left, and after O'Connor had fanned another brother, R. Grant, delivered the third single of the inning and scored. Mr. O. Waldecker, Weigand couldn't find Huber's splitter and retired the side by striking out.

There was nothing doing then in the scoring line until the last of the second when Deerfoot Tom Needham Joe Valle's men evened things up. Calam started that session with a bingle, stole second while Connors was striking out, went to third when Monahan grounded out second to first and scored on Devine's first hit into right. Devine went to third on a passed ball but died there when Larkin hit an easy one to Pitcher Grant.

Again in the Fifth.

St. Mary's took the lead again in the fifth stanza when Carp Huber made two or three bad grabs for Kutz' weak offering, allowing that pesky gentleman to rest on first for the only time he got there during the game. A. Grant fled out to Monahan and Devine made a swell catch of R. Waldecker's long fly to left center. With two down we had no occasion to worry until Huber issued his first pass—and, by the way, it was Carp's passes that got him into trouble. O. Waldecker was the recipient of the free transportation and Mr. Donald, or David, or Dewey or something—commencing-with-D Grant singled most unkindly into left, scoring Kutz. O'Connor went out Monahan to Deerfoot.

Unlucky Seventh.

The prominent seventh inning promised to be more entertaining, but turned out most unlucky. Connors started with a hit and both he and Monahan were safe when O. Waldecker fozzled his brother's throw of Monahan's grounder to short. Devine came clean with his third single scoring Connors, and with no one down it looked like a cleaning. Larkins fouled out to third but "we should worry." And then came that gold-dinged double play which ruined all of our chances and put us out of the running. Ruthe hit one to short and he and Devine were doubled. Good night!

The Freeporters won their game in the ninth when Weigand fanned Kavanagh and Kutz and then got into

JEROME MAKES PREDICTION.

Colebrook, N. H., Aug. 25—Special to Telegraph—William Traversa Jerome, special deputy from New York state in the Harry K. Thaw case, was here today on his way to Sherbrooke, Canada, where he will take up the state's side of the case and endeavor to get Thaw deported to New York. Mr. Jerome says he is confident that Thaw will be deported to New York by the Canadian officials.

PLOW SHOPS OPEN TOMORROW MORNING

PRES. BRINTON ANNOUNCES EVERYTHING IS READY FOR SEASON'S RUN.

The Grand Detour plow shops will start work tomorrow, after a five weeks' shut-down for repairs, invoice, etc. All departments of the big factory, with the exception of the foundry, will open in the morning. The foundry will start one week later.

The plow shops have been closed for several weeks to allow repairs, and from thirty to forty men have been employed there steadily, repairing machinery, installing new equipment, mending and straightening up for the next season's run.

President W. B. Brinton stated this morning that the prospects for the winter were very good and that he was very well satisfied with conditions.

The announcement of the opening of the shops is very acceptable in Dixon. Many men are employed there. Their wages are good and the employees of the shop are a high class of men. The Grand Detour shop is one of Dixon's greatest assets.

HORSE STOLEN FROM IN FRONT OF CHURCH

A. L. MOATS REPORTS TO POLICE THAT HIS RIG IS MISSING.

A. L. Moats reported to the officers last evening that his horse and buggy had either been stolen from in front of the Brethren church during services or the horse had broken loose and wandered away. Mr. Moats when he came from church, could not find his rig and although a thorough search was made no trace of it had been obtained at noon.

Mr. Moats described his animal as a bay mare 12 or 13 years old hitched to a new buggy, in one front wheel of which a spoke is missing and another is loose. The harness, according to its owner, is an old one.

DIXON GIANTS PLAN TO PLAY LELAND'S

DIXON COLORED TEAM WANTS GAME WITH CHICAGO BROTHERS.

The Dixon Giants, a colored baseball team which has been playing many good games in this vicinity, are negotiating for a game with Rube Foster's Leland Giants of Chicago, Sept. 21 being the date for which Manager George Collins of the Dixon team is seeking the game, and it is reported that the indications are most favorable for a successful culmination of the negotiations. The Dixon lineup is:

Dave Harrison and Sandy Young, catchers.
Charles Westbrook, Charles Spronlin and Jack Edwards, pitchers.
John Brooks, 1b.
George Collins, 2b.
Will Watson, 3b.
S. Curdandown, ss.
Ed Spotts, lf.
John Rankhade, cf.

OBJECTION TO PLAN OF PLACING LIGHTS

MAYOR BRINTON SAYS LIGHTS MUST BE OPPOSITE AND ON CORNERS.

WANTS UNDERGROUND WIRING

Mayor Does Not Want to See Wires Strung From Post to Post All Over Business Section.

Mayor W. B. Brinton is rightly criticizing the plan for the placing of the new ornamental street lamps to be put up in Dixon soon. In some blocks the lights are not being placed opposite each other, but are zig-zagged across from one side of the street to the other, giving a fair distribution of light, but sacrificing the ornamental effect which, after all, is what we are after. We had good light distribution with the corner are light system.

The mayor also is against the overhead wiring of the lamps, maintaining that the wiring should be underground, if the ornamental feature of the new system is to be preserved, and that the wires strung from post to post all over town will look very badly.

There will be little uniformity about the lights if they are placed as is now planned, and some parts of the downtown portion which have heretofore had good, if not ornamental lighting, will have poorer light than before; for instance, the intersection of Galena avenue and River street, where the are lamp that light the approach to the end of the bridge and the crossing of the steam railway and street car tracks, a dangerous crossing, has been removed, and the only light will be from one ornamental lamp, which will be placed on the southwest corner of the intersection, leaving the other corner without a light and making a ragged, unfinished appearance to those leaving or entering the city at this point.

On some streets, where the trolley poles are already in, it has been found cheaper to put the lamps on those poles, but there is no place where the lights could not be put opposite, for the trolley supports are opposite each other, and where new poles are being put in they should be exactly opposite and should be placed on each corner and in the center of the block, as there are three lights to each side of the street in each block.

"In other cities where ornamental lights are installed they are placed in pairs and the wiring is placed out of sight underground," says Mayor Brinton.

If we are going to spend a lot of money to possess an ornamental lighting system, let us have it ornamental. We want something more than a mere fair distribution of light for the old unsightly are lamps give that.

PAVING WORKERS GUARD THE ALLEY

MAN WHO ATTEMPTS TO FORCE WAY IN IS ROUGHLY HANDLED.

The determination of a Dixon man to drive into Commercial alley this morning when Gund & Graham, paving contractors, had the thoroughfare closed for improvements, and his alleged use of profane language to the men working there, brought about a short fistie encounter, as a result of which the Dixon man was forcibly tossed off the highway. The fight attracted considerable attention, but fortunately no one was seriously hurt.

In speaking of the encounter Foreman Croft of the Gund & Graham force stated that he was sorry such an affair had taken place, but he added that it is absolutely necessary to keep the streets closed after a certain stage of the work is reached, and that he does not blame the men who were alleged to have been insulted for having resented the language used by the intruder.

ARRANGE DETAILS OF BIG CLAM BAKE

FINAL PREPARATIONS FOR MAJESTIC EVENT ARE BEING COMPLETED.

WILL BE DAY FULL OF FUN

Everything Has Been Thought of and the Program Will Be Unique.

Final preparations for the Elks' barbecue and clam bake, to be the big Labor day attraction of northern Illinois, are being made and by Saturday evening every detail will have been completed. The island has been thoroughly cleaned, transportation facilities attended to and every attraction secured. George W. Smith and his committee will this week erect all tents, platforms, booths, etc., needed for the big holiday celebration.

The attractions promise to eclipse anything ever attempted for such an affair. Waldo Whipple, the famous Rube Minstrel, and the Empire City quartet will furnish vaudeville attractions, the Elks' minstrels will sing, the Marquette orchestra will play all day. Tonnerman and Reall will furnish a red-hot wrestling match and the committees have seen to it that everyone has plenty of refreshments. The preparation of the food will be a big undertaking, but it will be successfully accomplished and all who attend are assured of plenty to eat.

Every member of the committee is anxious to make this year's entertainment a record breaker and therefore enthusiastic work is the watchword for all. There will be hundreds of out of town visitors at the bake and it is proposed to entertain them so well that they will want to come again and will bring all of their friends.

WRITES NOTE TO GIRL THEN KILLS HIMSELF

CHARLES HUBNER OF TAMPA, FLA., SHOTS SELF IN STERLING.

Disappointed in love, Charles Hubner of Tampa, Fla., shot and killed himself in the European hotel in Sterling Friday evening. He left a note addressed to his sweetheart, Miss Anna Kulogowski of Sterling, and attired himself in new clothing throughout before placing a revolver to his head and firing the fatal shot. His note to his sweetheart was:

"Miss Anna Kulogowski,
First Ave. and 4th St., City.
God Almighty forgive me!

I could not see you last night as it was too late.
I will stay in Sterling like you wanted me to, but you mother has done it.

I love you. Mourn for me after I am dead. I have done it for you.
I have the papers which I have sent to my brother, also for the land. He will come here and you show him my grave where you have laid me.

Have $195 with me for the burial. For seven years we have been true to each other. But your folks have done this and spoiled our happiness. God forgive them!

I can write no more—only die!
(Signed) Charles Hubner."

VAUDEVILLE AND PICTURES

Two vaudeville acts and four reels of pictures will be shown at the Family theatre tonight. This is the beginning of the regular fall season and hereafter the vaudeville will be run the entire week in place of only the last half of the week.

Alvia & Alvia, a singing, talking and dancing act, Joe Fondellen, juggling musical novelty and four reels of pictures will be the bill at the Family tonight, and all for ten cents.

Two vaudeville acts, four pictures, all for 10 cents, at the Family theatre tonight.

Atty. S. V. Wirick of Rochelle was here today.

PROPOSED ROADS ARE MUCH TOO NUMEROUS

COMMITTEE WILL HAVE TO CUT OUT MANY HIGHWAYS ASKED FOR.

ELIMINATION WILL BE FOUGHT

Some Townships Ask for Twice Their Share—County Can Have But 249 Miles.

The supervisors' roads committee will resume their deliberations over the roads to be marked for state assistance at 2 p. m. tomorrow and interesting sessions of the committee may be expected before they report to the board at the September meeting. The committee has made a thorough examination of all roads marked for improvement and after checking over all the wants it is found the total mileage under consideration greatly exceeds the 249 miles which the state highway commission has allotted to this county. Consequently there will be some interesting arguments when the "shaving" process starts.

Under the allotment for Lee county it is estimated that each township can have about 11 miles of state roads; however, in the requisition chart which was marked out by the committee on its trip around the county some of the townships have asked for nearly twice that much. Naturally these demands will meet strong opposition from the members of the committee and board. The task of selecting the roads will be a long one and will bring about some heated debates and much personal argument.

ARRESTED FOR ROBBING MAILS

TWO ITALIANS ARRESTED FOR LOOTING BOXES BY FEDERAL AUTHORITIES.

Two Italians, whose names are unknown, were arrested by Marshal Kerner and ex-Marshall Harry Presbrey of Rock Falls Saturday near the government dam on the Sterling side of the river and are now in the Rock Falls jail awaiting information from the federal authorities on a charge of robbing mail boxes. Incidentally, they are also charged with the theft of chickens from the hen roost of John B. Britt, sexton of the Rock Falls cemetery.

Robbery Seen by Britt.

The robbery of the mail box at the Elmer Landis home was witnessed by Mr. Britt, who had previously driven the two men away from their camp along the canal after he had identified the chickens they had stolen from him. Mr. Britt is positive the men took mail from the mail box though not sure whether newspapers or letters.

PLAN BUSY SEASON AT LOCAL Y. M. C. A.

SECRETARY BAILEY IS COMPLETING SCHEDULES FOR WINTER.

The force at the Y. M. C. A. is exceptionally busy cleaning up the building, making such repairs as are needed and getting ready for the opening of fall work. Secretary Bailey is at work on his plans and schedules for the winter's work, the details of which will be announced later. It is already apparent that the gymnasium schedule for the coming season will be the heaviest in the history of the association and special attention is to be given instruction in swimming.

DOING GOOD WORK.

We are told that J. W. Myers is doing a fine job of work grading the Page hill in Grand Detour township, north of Dixon. He is preparing for a mile of hard road. Let the good work go on.

LUTZ WILL CASE HAS BEEN REOPENED

JUDGE SCOTT ESTABLISHES PRECEDENT FOR PROBATE PRACTICE HERE.

MINOR HEIRS GET RECOGNITION

An Estate Valued at Over $100,000 Is Again Opened for Litigation.

County Judge R. H. Scott in the county court, this afternoon rendered a decision in the Lutz will case which establishes a precedent for Illinois in such matters, for his opinion holds that minor heirs in an estate are entitled to representation in hearings. In conjunction with his decision in the petition, the county judge established a few new rules for practice in his court. Hereafter in all probate cases in the county court of Lee county:

A guardian ad litem (during litigation) will be named for all minor heirs;

No one but an attorney will be allowed to draw petitions for presentation to court, and,

In every petition to probate a will the names, ages and relationship of all minor heirs must be set forth in the petition.

Reopens Lutz Case.

Readers will remember the resume of litigation of the John Lutz will, published some time ago. Briefly the situation was: John A. Lutz, wealthy farmer, died leaving a will providing that his property, valued at over $100,000, should be used by his 8 children during their lifetime, and then go to his grandchildren, of whom there were 23. The will was presented at county court but only one witness of the will, Jacob Spatz, would testify that the maker of the document was of sound mind when he made it. The other witnesses, W. B. McHenry and W. R. Dusher, refused to so testify. Accordingly the will was refused for probate.

Soon after a daughter, Mrs. Mary Starck, obtained a decree for a partition sale of the property, but in the meantime Harry Loptein, a minor grandson, obtained his majority and engaged Attorney Edwards of this city and C. F. Preston of Pawpaw and filed a petition asking that a guardian ad litem be appointed for the minor grandchildren, and that the order refusing the will for probate be vacated and the hearing on the petition to probate be reopened. Judge Scott's order of today allows the prayer of the petition, reopens the case and gives Attorneys Edwards and Preston cause for pride.

There were no similar cases on record in the state and but one identical case could be found, from the West Virginia courts. Consequently Judge Scott's order and opinion form a notable precedent in this state.

ED. F. BENJAMIN DIES IN CHICAGO

FORMER RESIDENT OF THIS CITY DIED AT CHICAGO HOME SUNDAY.

Mrs. John Shoemaker today received word of the death of her brother-in-law, Edward F. Benjamin, in Chicago on Sunday morning.

Mr. Benjamin, who was 68 years of age, had been an invalid for some time and his death was due to a general breaking down of health.

The funeral will be held in Chicago Wednesday. Burial will also be made there.

Mr. Benjamin was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Benjamin of this city, and spent the greater part of his youth and manhood here. For the past twenty years he has resided in Chicago. His wife and two children, Claude Benjamin and Mrs. Maude Evans, survive to mourn his loss, as do his brother Horace of Dakota and a sister, Mrs. Emma Barnes of Quincy. There are several relatives, not so closely related, in this city and they and the many friends are saddened by the news of the death of Mr. Benjamin.

A CAMPAIGN FOR MEMBERSHIP IS ON

YOUNG MEN OF CITIZENS' ASSOCIATION PLAN TO INCREASE ENROLLMENT.

EVERYONE SHOULD BELONG

Organization Must Have Solid Support of Every Citizen to Accomplish Good.

The young men's branch of the Dixon Citizens' association is arranging for a big membership campaign, which will be pursued quietly for a time and will terminate in a thorough canvass of the entire city, and they expect to have a membership list of at least 500 men.

The association has several plans for city betterment under consideration and if they are to carry out their ideas successfully they must have backing. With a membership of the hundreds of young men in this city, all working in harmony and for the best interests of Dixon, the success of almost anything they decide to go into would be assured. There are great possibilities here, but only concerted action can develop them.

When some member of the Young Men's association approaches you, and asks you to sign the card that makes you a member of the association, if you are not already a member, sign up.

The dues are not large, $5 per year, and they entitle you to membership in both branches of the Citizens' association, the senior and the junior divisions. They both work together and under one charter, and if you are a member of one, you also belong to the other. The branches simply take up different lines of work.

They are working for all of us, and they deserve and must have our support.

BLOOMER GIRLS TO PLAY DIXON STARS

WILL MEET FAIR ONES AT ATHLETIC PARK SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

The Dixon Stars will meet the famous College Bloomer Girls' baseball team at Athletic park Saturday afternoon and because of the success this team has been meeting on its trip through the west it is safe to predict a good attendance. The College Bloomer Girls are said to differ from other similar teams in that the members are with two or three exceptions real college girls who have become proficient in the national game. The team has been playing and winning from many strong teams in the middle west and their exhibition will surely be interesting.

At Deer Grove Tuesday.

The Stars will go to Deer Grove tomorrow to play the town team of that place. A big homecoming celebration will be put on by the Deer Grovers all day and the ball game will be a feature of the day.

Browns Have Games.

The Browns will go to Morris on next Sunday to play a return game with the Independents. The last game between these two teams, played in this city and which was the Browns' first contest of the season, went 11 innings to a 4 to 4 tie, and consequently next Sunday's game will be of interest. The Browns will also play two games with the Sterling West Ends at Sterling on Labor day.

BROKE HIS LEG.

While scuffling with Geo. Saumby at their camp on Myers Island Sunday afternoon, Ira Perrine suffered the fracture of his left leg. He was brought to Dixon at once and taken to the Katherine Shaw Bethea hospital, where the fracture was reduced.

WEATHER FORECAST

Illinois: Fair and warmer Monday; Tuesday, probably fair, moderate northeast winds shifting to south east. Sunrise, 5:07; sunset, 6:33. Moonrise, 10:40 p. m.

FUNERAL OF JAMES SMITH HERE TONIGHT

DIXONITE WHO MET DEATH AT LELAND BROUGHT HERE—BABY IS BURIED.

The remains of James Smith, the Dixon young man who was killed at Leland in a railroad accident Friday night, will be brought here on the 5:30 o'clock passenger this evening and will be taken to Oakwood cemetery where interment will take place.

The United Spanish War Veterans, of which deceased was a member, will have charge of the services at the grave.

Funeral of Baby.

Because of the inability of the Indiana Harbor Orthodox Greek priest to reach Dixon yesterday, it was impossible yesterday to hold the funeral of little Aleman Boohila, who died at her parents' home on River street Friday evening. The clergyman arrived here at noon today, however, and the services were conducted at the house this afternoon. Interment was at Oakwood.

COUNTERFEIT COIN

IS IN STERLING
Sterling Gazette:—That a gang of counterfeiters are operating or are about this city is believed by local merchants and people as a result of the prevalence of an unusually large amount of bogus coin which has made its appearance during the past few weeks. Scarcely a day has passed but some one has taken in from one to a half dozen of the coins, all of which are clever imitations of the genuine article. In no case has the person taking the coin been able to remember from whom it was received.

All of the coins are of small denominations, quarters, half dollars and dollars. The quarters and half dollars are said to be better imitations than the dollars, although the latter are such as to pass detection except from an expert.

FINE FARM BROUGHT

EXCELLENT PRICE
Charles Hey has sold his fine farm to David G. Palmer of Chicago, formerly of Bureau county. The land brought $300 per acre and there are 45 acres.

Mr. Palmer was an extensive fruit grower in Bureau county before removing to Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Hey are somewhat undecided as to what they will do, but Mr. Hey is an enthusiast on peach growing and may take up this project sooner or later.

ROCKFORD WANTS

3-CENT CAR FARE
Rockford, Aug. 22.—The aldermen are hearing from their constituents in advance of action on the request of the street railway company for an extension of franchise for ten additional years.

Working men are asking that a three-cent car fare during the hours when factory employees and others are going to and from work be insisted upon by their aldermen in consideration of the grant sought. A movement is also on foot for transfers from interurban cars to the city lines.

BATHING BEACH

The bathing beach at Assembly park will remain open until late fall.

SOUTH SIDE SCHOOLS

OPEN ON MONDAY
The south side schools will open for the 1913-14 term Monday at 9 a. m., when all teachers will be on hand to assign books and lessons. All pupils are expected to report for enrollment and those who desire to take examinations to make up lost work can do so Monday.

DIXONITES PUBLISH

A NEW MARCH
W. H. Smith & Son, the Dixon music publishers, are announcing the publication of a new march which promises to be a most popular number with bands and orchestras. The march, "Columbia Victrix," is by Max Von Lenz, arranged by Mr. Smith, and has a stirring six-eight movement and is harmonious and "catchy" throughout.

COUNCIL WILL MEET.

The council will meet in regular session tonight.

RING VALUED AS KEEPSAKE.

Mrs. Margaret Burright lost Saturday a ring set with three garnets which she values as a keepsake, it being the property at one time of a deceased daughter.

RETURN SURPRISES PARENTS.

Miss Helen Wahler Was Believed to Have Been Lost in Omaha Cyclone.

Freeport, Aug. 22.—Miss Helen Wahler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wahler, residing at 78 Spring street, who it was believed, was numbered among the killed in the Omaha cyclone, on March 23, this year, appeared at her home in this city yesterday morning and is in good health.

Miss Wahler left home early in the spring, going to Omaha, where she wrote letters to her parents. Immediately following the cyclone no word was received from her and all inquiries resulted in no information being received. Her relatives in this city were positive that she was among the unidentified dead of Omaha and they gave up all hope of again seeing her and when she walked into her home yesterday the surprise was an agreeable one to her aged parents.

Miss Wahler stated to friends that she was working in Omaha and that she merely neglected to write to her parents.

MEDICAL TALKS

By Dr. Frizelle

GATARRAH OF THE STOMACH

Self treated, which is altogether wrong. Mr. J. C. came to me last spring complaining. He had a full feeling in the stomach; no appetite, sometimes he had pain and bloating. He also belched gas and sour, burning fluids; tongue was coated and a bad taste in the mouth, sometimes light headed; sometimes headache; bowels constipated and full of gas. He had been to a friend (?) of his, Brother Druggist, who knows all about drugs except what diseases they should be given for, and when they should not be given. He advised him to get a bottle of Dr. Skinner's Stomach Bitters. He got it. He took a dose before dinner; he had eaten no breakfast, felt sick at breakfast time; he had eat hearty and felt fine. Blessings on Brother Druggist. "That's better than the doctor could have done." Took more of the medicine; increased the dose. It physiced him severely the next afternoon and kept him up half the night. He didn't take any the next day; didn't feel very good; no appetite; took a dose next morning; eat breakfast; took more; eat dinner, and more bitters, and eat supper. Morning, more bitters, but not much breakfast. Somewhat felt very bad; no action of the bowels; dinner time comes, can eat nothing; distress in the stomach head aches and feels bad; goes back to Brother Druggist and tells him so "don't think the medicine is working just right." Has not had any action of bowels in three days. "Oh, well!" says the druggist, "here is just what you need, Red Blackbird mineral water," our own preparation, take half this bottle when you get home, take the other half later. He went home and took the medicine as directed and in a few minutes he vomited severely.

An hour later he took the other half, with no better results. His good wife got him to bed but he refused to have the doctor sent for. So the good wife made him some Sena tea, which acted with dispatch and he felt relieved in the morning. He was disgusted with the drug store and patent medicines prescribed with out knowledge of the conditions. He sees in the last evening's paper that "The Great Doctor Buncombe will be at the Hotel the next day." This is a splendid opportunity, and he must not miss it. Dr. Frizelle tells this story as it was told to him.

Consultation is Free.
You will find me in my office in ROCKFORD Mondays and Fridays. In my office in Dixon over the Countryman store Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Sundays and evenings by special appointment.

DR. C. H. FRIZELLE.

O. H. Martin was in Chicago today on business.

Mrs. Phil Woolever went to Chicago this morning.

FINAL SPECIAL ASSESSMENT NOTICE.

Public notice is hereby given that the Board of Local Improvements of the City of Dixon, in the County of Lee and State of Illinois, caused to be filed in the County Court of said County of Lee on the 25th day of August, A. D. 1913, a certificate showing the final cost of constructing cement concrete curbing and vitrified brick or block pavement on East First Street, Commercial Alley, Ottawa Avenue and Crawford Avenue constructed in said City of Dixon under and in pursuance of City of Dixon Local Improvement Ordinance No. 144, Series of 1913, and the amount estimated by said Board to be required to meet accruing interest on bonds and vouchers issued to anticipate the collection of the assessment for said work. Said certificate also shows that said work has been done and completed by the Contractor doing the work in substantial conformity to the requirements of said ordinance and has been duly accepted by said Board.

The final cost of said improvement and the amount estimated for interest as shown by said certificate are:

1104.5 linear feet of cement concrete curbing at twenty-nine (29) cents per linear foot	$ 320.31
9797.6 square yards of vitrified brick or block pavement at one and sixty-three (1.63) hundredths dollars per square yard.	15970.03

Total cost of work ..... $16290.40
Lawful expense ..... $20.32
Total cost of improvement ..... $16310.72

Public notice is further given that the court has set said certificate and any objections that may be filed thereto for hearing at nine o'clock in the forenoon on Monday, the 15th day of September, A. D. 1913, or as soon thereafter as the business of the court will permit.

Said hearing will be held in the County Court Room in the Court House, in the City of Dixon, County of Lee and State of Illinois.

All persons interested may file objections before said time set for hearing and appear and show cause why said petition should not be taken as true.

Dated August 25th, A. D. 1913.
Board of Local Improvements of the City of Dixon, Illinois.

15 Its Attorney.

WELL DESERVED

THE PRAISE THAT COMES FROM THANKFUL DIXON PEOPLE.

One kidney remedy has known merit. Dixon people rely upon it. That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills.

Dixon testimony proves it reliable. E. B. Fisher, barber, 116 Hennepin Ave., Dixon, Ill., says: "I had rheumatic pains through my back and limbs and when I stood in one position for any length of time, it was hard for me to move. My kidneys acted irregularly and contained sediment. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a supply at Leake Bros. Co's Drug Store. They did me so much good that I continued taking them. They made me strong and well. I still use this remedy once in awhile and it keeps my kidneys in good working order. I am glad to endorse Doan's Kidney Pills as highly now as I did before."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Dementown Doings

We would that this col. could move the hearts of certain owners of piles of rusty wire as easily as we have awakened the consciences of certain city custodians of used-to-be fish ponds.

Dementtown promises to be the main part of town again Thursday. School election in North Dixon closes the third parlors, while ours remain open.

But then, think of the joy of the downtown saloon keepers. While they will be paying their $4 a day license and their ice and their rent and their help, they can close up and go to see the circus.

Goose Hollow Letter
Seth Higgins has writ a piece entitled "The Evolution of Envy in the Minds of the Lower Biped," following a statement that chickens had scratched up all the eggplant seed Rev. Simpkins had planted in his garden.

Just as Mrs. Hank Tumms was walkin' under a boss collar which wuz hangin' in front of the Corner store Saturday afternoon the damned thing fell right around her neck. Hank sez he guesses the thing that that wuz where it belonged becuze there's so bloomin' much waggin' tew her tung.

Who Owns This Auto?
A farmer living a few miles southwest of Manlius was sitting on the porch of his home one hot night recently when he noticed an automobile come noiselessly down the road and stop at a point convenient to his chicken house. He saw someone get out of the car with a sack or some other thing suitable for containing certain articles. The autoist proceeded to the chicken house and while he was at work there the farmer slipped over to the car and stole the spark plug which robbed the machine of its ability to proceed.

The chicken thief, after getting the chickens, went bac kto the car and finding the predicament in which he had been placed, made good his escape, but left the car, which is still at the farm house. The farmer is waiting with some curiosity for the thief to return and claim the car.

Proper Way to Eat Sweet Corn
When eating green corn, great care should be taken to keep the corn out of the hair and ears, particularly if you are dining out in company. Of course if you are eating alone or in a restaurant, you may go as far as you like. In other words you may chew to the line and let the corn fall where it will. The main object should be to get at least 55 per cent of the corn into your system, and not more than 45 per cent of it on the table cloth and the floor.

The whole ear of corn should not be buttered at one time, for this is a waste of raw material. Nothing is swifter or more elusive than a piece of butter which has been placed on an ear of hot corn. A person is apt to miss it suddenly and find it a few minutes afterward in his vest pocket or on the inside of his shoe. It is better to butter about one mouthful of corn at one time and then grab it suddenly. It requires as much dexterity as swatting the fly, and is much more exciting.

The Home-Making Woman.
"I have no patience with these women who declaim that women's sphere has been a narrow one," says a well-known writer. "It has been the home, and what is wider than the home? The woman who desires to make her home as wide as the horizon. The right woman can make home of a hotel room; the wrong woman can make a mansion a hotel. Home is an atmosphere and when women cease to strive to learn the art of home-making then will the world, indeed, go wrong."

The Nude in Art.
It might be well to bear in mind that when a real artist paints or models the nude human figure he does so usually from an accurate knowledge and intense admiration for the most wonderful of God's creations. And it is a remarkable fact that no great artist ever drew, painted or sculptured anything vulgar, for great art means knowledge and intelligence of a high order, and no person of knowledge and intelligence is consciously vulgar.

THE ONE GREAT THING

By GUY MARKHAM.

"Ah, roses! and I love them so," and the girl lifted the great armful of fragrant and beautiful flowers and rushed them almost roughly to her swelling bosom.

"Oh, why, why, cannot Will send me such things?" she whispered passionately to herself. "I like him so much better than any other man—yes, yes, indeed I fear I love him; but I cannot, so I cannot face life of 'love in a cottage' and know that I must always do without all the nice things of life."

Then she smiled a wonderful smile—the smile which had made her the most sought after girl in her set; and she blushed a rosy little flush and whispered still more softly to herself: "But I'd rather live a year with Will in a cottage than a lifetime in a palace with any other man. Besides they say Will is bound to rise and all the men say he will some day be an ornament to the bar—and all that sort of thing. Even papa approves of Will along with all the other men."

She shivered a little shiver. "But, mamma does not take any stock in Will," she thought soberly, "and mamma is the practical one in our family."

The girl buried her face in the great bunch of roses—they cost the tender a cold twenty-five dollars—and looked up defiantly.

"Well, why should I not marry Mr. Hadley?" she soliloquized. "He is a man who has demonstrated his ability and is not an offensive person in any way."

Then, without apparent excuse she cried out, aloud: "Will never could have sent me these roses—and I love them, I love them, I love them!"

Then exercising her woman's prerogative, she sat down and had a good cry. Then she arose, glanced at the bit of pasteboard which came with the roses and which bore only the words "Nell—from W. T. H. Wear them tomorrow night," and went to her dainty desk to acknowledge them.

The note Hadley received at his office the next morning puzzled him not a little, but delighted him a great deal. He never had been able to pierce the reserve of the girl he desired so earnestly to marry, and being a keen judge of human nature he detected a warmer and more receptive ring to her words than there had been any others she ever had addressed to him.

"Roses," he exclaimed in a puzzled way to himself. "There's a mistake somewhere, but inasmuch as it seems to have warmed her toward me I reckon the way is to say nothing."

The incident so interested him that he lost all track of the market and made so many mistakes during the day that he came out a considerable loser—an unheard of thing for Walter Hadley.

In the meantime the young man who had gone broke to send the roses to the fair Miss Nell, ate his heart away in disappointment at receiving no word of acknowledgment. Before night he had decided that there was no use trying any longer and had planned a campaign in the Klondike, where he would acquire a fortune or leave his bones to bleach.

Miserable as he was, however, he could not refrain from sliding into his evening clothes that night and attending the ball at the Price's, where he was assured to see the idol of his dreams and his despair.

Hadley appeared at the ball early, easy and confident and proceeded immediately to take possession of Miss Nellie Ross, whom he found as gracious as her note indicated. Hadley knew well how to avail himself of an opportunity and before he had talked to her five minutes she knew that the great question was to be asked and that her answer was to be demanded that night. And she knew what the answer was to be. She was vaguely glad that Will was not there.

It was about midnight, when, after walking through a quadrille with her Hadley decided that the propitious moment had come and turned to lead her to the conservatory. Pale and trembling with excitement, for she, too, saw the moment had arrived, she turned to take his arm.

At this particular time Will Hunter, who had just come into the room, appeared before them in a state of more or less suppressed excitement. He had arrived late and with the instinct of love his eyes had rested at once upon the object of his devotion. With a start he observed that she wore the roses he had sent.

"As you wear my colors I think I may claim a waltz," he said with easy assurance. And before Miss Nell fairly knew what was going she found herself swinging round and round in the clasp of a strong arm.

"Did my roses bring any subtle message with them?" he whispered. "Your roses!" she repeated, puzzled.

"Yes, I see you wear them," he replied in ecstasy, "and I hope they conveyed all I meant them to."

"You great goose," she said softly, looking up at him with swimming

"Let's go out on the veranda a moment and cool off," and Nell found herself whisked through the French windows onto the broad veranda overlooking the moonlit lawn; and of a sudden it came to her that it mattered not at all about an establishment and relations and position in society and flowers and all other inconsequential things so long as she had the one great thing in the world.

Band Composed of Lepers.
On the island of Cullion, in the Philippine archipelago, is to be heard the most select and remarkable brass band in the world. It is made up wholly of lepers, banished there to a living death, for the island is the haven and retreat for the lepers of the United States' possessions in the far east. The total population of the island is in the neighborhood of 4,775, all of whom are under treatment.

FAMILY THEATRE
The Family theatre will resume the regular fall and winter policy of the house and run vaudeville the entire week hereafter, and will offer Alvia & Alvia in a scenic singing talking and dancing novelty and Joe Fondellen in a juggling and musical number. Mr. Fondellen has just arrived from Europe and is under Mr. Matthews' management and Dixon is his first American appearance. He does a skillful juggling act and ends with piano-acordion musical numbers.
The following pictures will be shown:
The Honor of a Soldier.
Death Marathon.
For Mayor, Miss Smith.
God is Love.

PRINCESS TONIGHT.
The Princess theatre tonight will exhibit a special feature entitled Half a Chance, the greatest three-reel picture dramatization of Frederick Isham's popular novel. It is unexcelled for dramatic situations and tender heart interest, dealing with the vital subject of Men Made Over. The acting and photoplay work in the picture are wonderful.

BORROWING A BABY
Crooning to dimpled three months old child, a tired mother sat on a door sill in a blistering tenement in New York's crowded East side one noon in July.
A woman she had met but once drew near and proposed, to take baby to a park for the afternoon.
The woman looked kind and neighborly, the mother was ready to drop and fresh air would do baby much good. So the precious burden was transferred and mother went wearily to her household duties inside.
The hours wore away, twilight came and no sight of baby. Soon it was bed time and still no word of baby. In a panic the mother applied to the police. But it was little information she could give the police.
Days passed. Then weeks. One month, to a day, the mother heard a feeble cry outside and flew to the door, to find baby kicking its chubby feet in a basket on the step below.
This was what had happened.
The woman was a professional baby borrower.
In New York, as in most cities, there are fresh air funds to send tired mothers and gasping babies to the country seashore. The woman, having no baby of her own, had decided to get a free outing on the credit of another's child. There are too many who do that regularly.

ASYRIAN GIRL IN TROUBLE ONCE MORE

MAGISTRATE KENT CALLED TO STERLING TO SETTLE FAMILY TROUBLES.

Magistrate W. G. Kent was called to Sterling Saturday afternoon to investigate reports that Mrs. Michels, the woman who was mentioned so prominently by the press last spring because of her alleged abuse of Adele Mubarak, the little Asyrian girl, had been creating trouble for Adele and her father, Emanuel Mubarak, at the home of a certain Mr. Emello.
After the girl's father came here and took her in charge he secured board and lodging from the Emello family and soon afterward took a position on the Northwestern section gang at Sterling, of which Emello is foreman.
The reports that reached Mr. Kent were that Mrs. Michels had gone to the Emello home and secured Mubarak's discharge from his job and the ejectment of both from the house, and the magistrate reports he found the reports were true. Accordingly he brought Adele and her father to this city, secured employment for the father at the cement works east of town and will keep Adele at his home until he finds a suitable place for her.

GRASS FIRE AT SHOE FACTORY

FENCE WAS BURNED AND BUILDING ENDANGERED BY A BLAZE TODAY.

The Red School House shoe company's factory in this city was endangered by fire at noon today when a grass fire, probably started by the sparks from a passing switch engine, ignited the fence north of the factory and burned to within a few feet of the store and warehouses. Had the buildings caught fire a serious blaze would have resulted.
Superintendent Houser and Thomas Gorham were at work with a line of hose fighting the fire when the department arrived, and after their entrance the blaze was soon extinguished.
Chemical Broken.
A "tribute" to the condition of the streets in the west end was furnished unconsciously by one of the chemical tanks on the wagon, for while the department was making the run the rough riding broke one of the glass containers in the apparatus and it immediately commenced to play fire extinguisher all over the wagon.

LOCAL LADS WHO WILL GUARD ELGIN RACE COURSE GLAD OF THE CHANCE.
Capt. Sam Cushing and the 25 members of Co. G detailed to assist in guarding the Elgin race course for the big auto races there Friday and Saturday of this week, leave on Thursday evening for that city. Friday morning they will be given instructions and placed along the race course. The men who have been selected to go are enthusiastic because of the fine opportunity it gives them to see the great races.
Mrs. Emma Buell, who has been visiting here for some time, left today for a business trip to Oklahoma, from which state she will return to her home in Florida.

JOHN LIND READY TO LEAVE MEXICO?

HUERTA MISINTERPRETS EX-VOY'S MISSION AND TASK IS BELIEVED HOPELESS.

SITUATION NOW DANGEROUS

Only Quick Change of Policy by Provisional President Can Avert Serious Complications With United States, is Belief.

Mexico City, Aug. 25.—Embassy Adviser John Lind is prepared to leave for Vera Cruz upon an hour's notice. Seemingly certain that the Mexican government has misinterpreted the cause of his mission, he has abandoned his task as hopeless. The situation is regarded as more dangerous than at any other period during the last six months, and can be remedied only by a change in the attitude with which Huerta has accepted the peace overtures of the United States.
City of Mexico, Aug. 25.—The situation that exists here at the present time is causing the keenest anxiety. The capital is nervously awaiting the development of the action of the United States government in Mexico's internal affairs.
That President Huerta will make public today the correspondence between the two countries is now a matter of doubt, and in official quarters it is thought possible that President Wilson will advance the date for presentation of his message, notwithstanding the announcement of a 48-hour limit. No news of such determination on the part of the president of the United States to force General Huerta's hand in this way has reached the embassy, however.
There is an insistent report that General Huerta will call a special session of congress, that General Trevino, an aged warrior, will be named provisional president and that Huerta will take command of the forces in the field in northern Mexico. This was denied by Federico Gamboa, minister of foreign affairs.
"The report has not before reached me," said John Lind. "I have received absolutely no information to confirm such a rumor."
Mr. Lind said his conferences with officers of the government continue without interruption.
Nations Approve Policy.
Washington, Aug. 25.—Besides Great Britain, France and Japan, practically all the Central and South American countries are leading their support to the efforts of the United States to bring about a peaceful settlement of the Mexican revolution.
Following the receipt of a communication in cipher from John Lind, President Wilson's special envoy to Mexico, the president and Secretary Bryan held a conference on the Mexican situation. Mr. Bryan said the situation was unchanged.
Fear Capital Mutiny.
Confirmation of the reports concerning General Huerta's desperate plight is contained in a special dispatch of the Washington Times from a correspondent who has just arrived at Havana from Mexico. He says that Huerta is confronted by the probability of a serious mutiny and adds that foreign residents of the City of Mexico are fearful that if the government troops do mutiny the capital will witness outrages that will make those at Durango, Torreon and other points pale into insignificance.
An American, who arrived at El Paso from the Galeana district, said Gen. Francisco Villas' rebels are ill-treating women in each town they capture and that many girls have been carried away with the army.
American Reported Slain.
Milwaukee, Aug. 25.—Robert Rudolph, former alderman from a South side ward, convicted and sent to prison for corrupt use of his office, has been killed, according to a report received here, while fighting for the Mexican rebels as a captain in the surrecto army. He had assumed the name of Robert Lincoln. It is reported Madero Adherent Slain.
City of Mexico, Aug. 25.—Serapio Rendon, a member of the chamber of deputies, was executed by a firing squad at Atzacapotzalco, a suburb. He was an adherent of Madero and was accused of plotting to assassinate Huerta. Deputy Bordes Mangel was shot dead two days previously by soldiers at the same spot.

GANNON GOES WEST.
Martin Gannon Jr. accompanied by Martin Gannon Sr., will go to Chicago tomorrow and from there the young man will leave for the state of Oregon, where he expects to look for a place to locate permanently in the law business.
Mr. Gannon is a fine young man, very able, and should make a brilliant lawyer. He recently graduated from the Dixon College of Law and passed the Illinois state bar examination. Dixon is sorry to lose him, but he feels that prospects are better in the west and all his friends here will wish him the greatest kind of success.
Miss Louise Todd went to Chicago this morning.

First base on errors—Freeport 4, Dixon 2. Passed ball—Kavanaugh. Time of game—1:40. Umpire—Hogan.

Notes of the Game.
Devine had a perfect batting average for the day, his three trips to the plate resulting in three clean bingles. Had Monahan waited in the ninth instead of trying to steal when Kavanaugh let one roll a couple of feet back of him, Devine might have delivered his fourth clean drive and something might have happened.
Captain Valle should do something to stop the loafing between innings. The stalling tactics tire the crowds noticeably.
Features of the game were Pitcher Grant's fielding of his position, Devine's fine running catch of P. Waldecker's high one, Connors' fine catch of Grant's fly, Weigand's two catches of hard ones in the first and a swell pickup by Shortstopper Waldecker of Krueger's intended hit in the third.
Grant retired the Browns on three pitched balls in the fourth inning, being the shortest played here this season. Huber, first man up, slapped the first one into center for an easy out, Calam hit the first ball served him to short and was thrown out at first and Connors flew out to left on the first ball Grant tossed to him.

CONSENT TO HEAR BANKERS' VIEWS

Senate to Get Financiers' Opinions on the Currency Bill.

ONE CHANGE IS POSSIBLE

Senator Owen Declares Open Hearings Will Be Granted When Measure Reaches Upper House of Congress.

Washington, Aug. 25.—In answer to the criticisms of the currency bill made by the conference of bankers at Chicago, the administration's forces in the house will tighten up the lines and a more vigorous endorsement of the currency bill as it now stands will be the result.

Informal conferences of Democratic members of the house currency committee emphasized the fact that the active supporters of the president's currency plan expect to pass the measure through the house without substantial changes.

House to Stand Firm.
The proposal to reduce the quantity of reserves and give country banks the privilege of keeping part of their reserves in the large cities had many supporters, and ultimately may be worked into the bill in the senate, but the change is not expected in the house.

The bankers will have an opportunity to present their views openly to congress after the currency bill gets into the senate. Chairman Owen of the senate currency committee said that while hearings had not yet been arranged he expected leading representatives of the various "factions" among the bankers of the country would be invited to give their views of the bill to the senate committee.

Proposal Has Merit.
"I see a great deal of merit in the proposal to reduce somewhat the quantity of the reserves," said Senator Owen.

The fact that the leading bankers hold differing views of the effect of the new legislation, particularly with regard to the possible reduction of loans and curtailment of credit, has led members of the senate committee to believe that a further discussion of the bill at open hearings would result in winning the co-operation and support of a large portion of the banking fraternity of the country.

Few of the changes advocated by the bankers' conference in Chicago will receive favorable consideration from the Democratic forces in the senate.

Shafroth to Offer Plan.
Senator Shafroth, a majority member of the currency committee will introduce in the senate a proposed plan for the retirement of all existing currency except silver certificates, and the issuance of a general form of treasury notes secured by a 50 per cent. gold reserve.

Senator Shafroth's bill also would substitute treasury notes at once for all outstanding national bank notes, and would cancel the government bonds that now form the security for the national bank currency.

He said his bill would save $14,800,000 in interest now paid by the government on bonds used to secure national bank currency, a sum that would be increased to $22,246,000 if the two per cent. bonds were refunded with three per cent. bonds.

"It would take the control of the currency out of the hands of the banks and place it in the government," said Senator Shafroth. "It would satisfy the bankers, because it would cash their two per cent. bonds without loss."

Bankers Urge Changes.
Chicago, Aug. 25.—The currency conference, called by the American Bankers' association to consider the Glass-Owen bill now before congress, unanimously finished its labors at the Hotel La Salle by unanimously adopting resolutions calling for important changes in the measure, and authorizing the appointment of a committee of seven to present them at Washington.

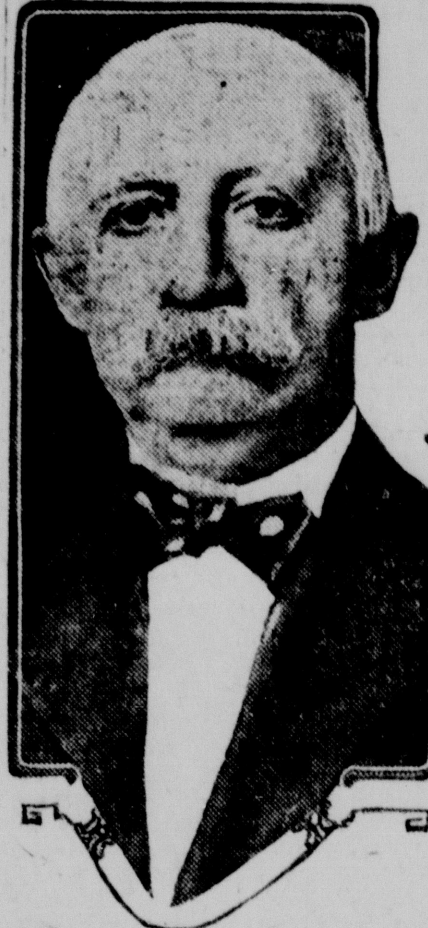

Though the bankers—who represented 47 states—have no hope that their suggestions will be embraced in toto by congress, they do think they will win many modifications. The conflicting Chicagoans—George M. Reynolds and James B. Forgan—agreed upon it, and Mr. Reynolds summed up the general opinion when he termed it:

"An able, dignified, and courteous set of recommendations which will encourage further attempts at legislation on the part of the bankers."

Nine-Year-Old Girl in Long Swim.
St. Louis, Aug. 25.—Fifteen out of sixteen women who entered a two-mile swimming contest for their sex only in the Mississippi river finished in fine condition here. Miss Bernice Wirtz won in 80 minutes and 43 seconds. Miss Josephine Hose, nine years old, barred from the race because of her age, swam independently and came in sixth.

Rider Sets Record.
Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 25.—What is said to be a world's record for 100 miles on a dirt track for a motorcycle was made by Harry Goudy of Chicago, when he rounded the local mile track 100 times in 32 minutes flat. The previous record for 100 miles on a dirt track was 55 minutes.

REAL THAW FIGHT NEAR

Big Legal Battle to Come After Disposal of Habeas Writ.

Patches Up Quarrel Only After Lawyers Permit Him to Be Own Press Agent.

Sherbrooke, Que., Aug. 25.—Harry K. Thaw, reconciled with his Canadian lawyers to the procedure to be followed on Wednesday next, when, according to present plans, he will be arraigned in the superior court on a writ of habeas corpus, spent a restless day in the Sherbrooke jail and announced that no matter if William Travers Jerome did take charge of New York state's case, he (Thaw) was not fearful of the outcome.

"I faced the death chair twice," said Thaw. "Why should I worry about going back to Matteawan?"

Having found it useless to argue with him, Thaw's lawyers brought about a truce in the breach that for a time threatened by agreeing to let Thaw manage the "publicity end of his case."

Governor La Force, when asked about rumors of Thaw escaping from or being rescued from jail, said that if he thought there was any danger of that he would lock Thaw in what is known as the murderer's cell.

None of the Thaw lawyers cared to make any predictions as to the unbinding of the legal phases of the case, but it was understood that they would come into court with their habeas corpus writ, granted last week, on Wednesday as agreed and begin their real battle when the immigration authorities take up the question of deporting Thaw as an undesirable alien. This hearing might last for days.

REPORT TELLS OF SLAVERY

Secretary Worcester Reveals Conditions in Philippines.

Washington, Aug. 25.—Not only peonage but chattel slavery in the strictest sense of the word is flourishing today throughout the Philippine islands, according to a special report made by Commissioner Dean C. Worcester, secretary of the interior, to the governor general.

The report is the outcome of a request for information made to the war department by the senate on May 1, when Senator Borah read a letter from Commissioner Worcester stating in a general way that slavery existed on such a scale as to make it one of the most serious problems confronting the government.

Defining peonage as the condition of a debtor held by his creditor in a form of involuntary servitude and slavery as a condition in which a human being is held as a chattel, fed and clothed, but not paid, Mr. Worcester describes in great detail the different forms of traffic in human beings, the impossibility of suppressing the business under the present laws and the futile efforts at new legislation which have been made.

Two Fliers Fall in River.
Springfield, Mass., Aug. 25.—Ralph M. Brown, an aviator of this city, flying over the Connecticut river with his fourteen-year-old brother Raymond as a passenger, lost control of his machine and the brothers fell 100 feet into the river. Although entangled in the wreck, both held to one of the pontoons until rescued.

French Aid for World's Fair.
Paris, Aug. 25.—The French government sent a delegation to San Francisco to take possession of a site on the grounds of the Panama-Pacific exposition for the French pavilion.

DINING TABLES

The Hastings Dining Tables made at Hastings Michigan, are indeed worth getting acquainted with, they are the kind of table that clear away the clouds in your table sky and let the sun shine through. And we are going to tell you a few of the reasons why we want you to know more about Hastings Tables.

Hastings are extremely Careful about the timber they put into their Tables, they use nothing but carefully selected Northern Grown White Oak Stock, and then they Kiln Dry all their own lumber in their own peculiar careful way, so there is not a question of doubt but their Tables will stand for years and years without springing or warping in the least, and you know that this feature alone is worthy of the most favorable comment.

Construction with Hastings is a religion, shabby, haphazard work in their factory has long since been relegated to the boneyard, they have careful interested workmen in Hastings factory who do their work right all the time, so every Table has a guarantee as good as any Bond ever written for it bears the name "Hastings."

In the Year of 1901 Mr. Tyden became interested in the Hastings Tables and gave to them the Wonderful Tyden Lock, this simple piece of machinery securely locks BOTH Top and Pedestal in Hastings Tables, and so well does it perform its duty that even the extreme bottom of the Pedestal is securely fastened, this contrivance also permits of putting in 1 2 or 3 Leaves in the Top and so securely lock them that you can move the Table about the floor without the Table pulling apart, and as the Leaves in the Hastings Top are securely LOCKED IN you need have no fear of the Hastings pulling apart after the Table is set for dinner.

To remove the Top of the Hastings Table is a simple operation, no hammer screwdriver, or tool of any kind is needed, simply open the top of Table a little, ways and push out two small steel pins and the Top can be lifted off the Base as easily as you please, you can then carry the Table out of the room in three sections and suffer no inconveniences getting through the doors.

Another exclusive feature of the Hastings Table is the Steel Bearing Slides, and so perfectly do these slides work that you will be surprised and pleased at the ease you can operate it. This feature is one of the most radical improvements in Table construction in years, and does away with the old practice of enlisting the services of the entire family, or calling in some of the neighbors whenever you want to open or close your Table.

M'CALL HEADS TICKET

Tammany Speakers Proclaim "Regularity" of Men.

"Home Rule" Is One of Planks of Platform—Murphy's Slate Goes Through Without Opposition.

New York, Aug. 25.—The following ticket was nominated by the Tammany city committee:

For Mayor—Edward E. McCall of Manhattan.

For Controller—Herman A. Metz of Brooklyn.

For President of the Board of Aldermen—Joseph A. Goulden of the Bronx. Murphy's slate went through without a tremor of opposition, nor so much as the first sign of dissent.

The cry of regularity was raised at every turn. The Tammany speakers said they were glad they would have a chance to vote for Democrats who bore the party stamp.

Charles F. Murphy sat among the delegates and throughout the proceedings made no more decisive motion than to put his handkerchief to his face and withdraw it.

There were reports that friends of Mayor Gaynor would attempt to stampede the convention for him, but no such move materialized.

The main planks of the platform are:

A declaration for rigid economy in municipal administration; an endorsement of the present subway policy of extension; home rule, as against "interference by the state legislature;" equal tax assessments to relieve burden of small owners and rent payers; to promote the supremacy of New York city as a port; to remove from police supervision "the suppression of gambling, disorderly houses, and kindred vices."

TRAIN HURLS FIVE TO DEATH

Chicagoans Lose Lives When Monon Coaches Hit Machine.

Chicago, Aug. 25.—Five persons were instantly killed last night, when a Monon train struck an automobile just south of Englewood. The train crashed into the big touring car, demolishing the car and scattering the occupants.

The dead: Alexander Rubin, thirty-five years old; Mrs. Mary Rubin, his wife, thirty years old; — Rubin, their two-and-one-half-year-old daughter; Mrs. Leo Rubin, wife of one of the injured men, twenty-eight years old; Leo Rubin, Jr., son of Mrs. Leo Rubin, six years old.

John L. Baxter was instantly killed near Des Plaines when the tire of a motorcycle on which he and his son were riding, blew out.

An automobile containing two women, a child, and two men got beyond control at Palos Park and killed two of the passengers. The dead: John H. Fry and Mrs. Addie Klein, mother of Fry.

Kills Man Who Saved Him.
Cincinnati, O., Aug. 25.—Fifteen minutes after Lew Phillips, a carpenter of Taylorsport, Ky., had been saved from a watery grave in the Ohio river, he is alleged to have entered the home of his rescuer, William Zurelby, one of the oldest citizens of Taylorsport, and killed the old man with a rifle.

GETTING ON WITH HER

By SIDNEY CONWAY.

"Isn't Charlotte a dear!" cried the girl in the swing seat as the young woman of whom she spoke waved a distractingly pretty hand from the window of her electric brougham. "Fancy your luck in having a step-mother nearly your own age, and such an adorable creature, too. So much more exciting than having a mere sister."

"Charlotte and I do have good times," agreed the girl with brown eyes and a small, rebellious mouth. "But I really thought for a while that we weren't going to get on at all. She made me feel snubbed all the time at first."

"I dare say the Viennese type is difficult to understand," agreed her friend. "But I cannot imagine Charlotte's hurting your poor little feelings."

"Oh, she didn't mean to hurt them. But we take such different things seriously. Now, clothes, for instance, Charlotte is one of those lucky persons who think that whatever is fashionable is exactly right. She can prove to you that the most hideous nightmare of the dressmakers' congress is eternally fit and intrinsically beautiful. She really thinks so—for the time being."

Charlotte has a positively uncanny sense of what is going to be the thing to wear. I can't catch her taking any preliminary notes. And she is perfectly unconscious of her gift."

"So when she discovers me dressing in a different way from herself, instead of asking me why I don't consult a really good dressmaker she merely looks hurt and inquires gently whether I don't think white hose with black pumps are just a bit—well, not what a lady would wear? Or she asks whether I realize that my hair is parted just a thought to one side? Or she will point out to me that to a really sound aesthetic sense the thought of trimming raw silk with any sort of lace is simply execrable."

"You see, dear, it is a tailored material," she would say, with that little reverent hush in her voice that some women always have when they speak of anything that is tailored. And she would say, "Of course it is hot and uncomfortable, but really, you know, a coat must always be worn on the train." And she would ask if I myself didn't feel the indelicacy of a blouse under such circumstances. The unprotected publicity of the thing, as it were, surely could not have escaped me.

"As for persons who permit themselves to appear on the street without gloves or in a drawing room with short sleeves and no collar, she could not speak of them for sheer horror. These offenses passed the bounds of charity. It wasn't the question of taste that she considered; it was the eternal rightness of things that weighed upon her."

"Well, you can realize that I haven't had to wait long, at the rate our styles move, exactly to change places with my pretty stepmother. Now she wears the lowest necks and the most frivolous excuses for sleeves, and the most coatless blouses; and when she catches me in a high collar she looks exactly as grieved as she used to look when I rolled up my sleeves."

"But she can't hurt my feelings any more—not a bit! For I know now that what she honestly supposes to be high moral ground is nothing in the world but a clever sixth sense as to what is being worn."

"I don't mind unfashionable, but I did hate to think I was color blind, tasteless, of doubtful delicacy and generally a blight on the good old puritan stock—all because I didn't wait to consult some Parisian fashion tyrant before I wore a dark waist with a light skirt. I've made her see it, and now we get on beautifully!"—Chicago Daily News.

It Certainly Would Not.

Church—I see women throw spoiled eggs at a neighbor, in New York, the other day, because she sang ragtime songs.

Gotham—Can't see how that would make either the songs or the eggs any better.

Not So Exclusive.

"I understand that Mr. Highbrow is very exclusive."

"He isn't absolutely exclusive. He associates with other people occasionally."

DESTROYING WEEDS IN WALKS

There are Number of Excellent Chemicals or Sprays Which Can Be Used With Good Success.

(By JULIUS ERDMAN, Colorado Agricultural College.)

It is rather a tedious process and hard on tools to remove weeds or grass from walks by hoeing or cutting them out between the stones, but there are a number of chemicals or sprays which can be used with good success.

1. Salt—Take 1 pound of salt to 1 gallon of water; boil and apply while still hot; or dry salt may be used and then watered in, but this will corrode the walk more or less, and is not quite so effective.

2. Crude carbolic acid, ½ ounce of the liquid to 1 gallon of water, will also destroy ants.

3. Sulphuric acid, 4-5 ounce of the acid to 1 gallon of water. Best applied with a wooden pail.

4. Take 1 pound of powdered arsenic to 3 gallons of cold water; boil and stir well. Then 7 gallons of cold water with 2 pounds of sal soda.

5. Lime and sulphur, 10 gallons of water, 20 pounds of quicklime and 2 pounds of flowers of sulphur are boiled in iron vessel. After setting, the clear part is dipped off and used when needed.

There are also a number of commercial weed killers in the market which can be bought at seed stores. Application of weed destroyers should be made on a hot day or night after a rain, with watering pot (sprinkler), and one good application is usually sufficient for the season. As most of them contain poison, either arsenic or acids, great care should be exercised in handling them.

PLANTS WANTED FOR WINTER

Seeds of the Primrose May Be Planted in Shallow Pots or Pans Filled With Leaf-Mold.

Make cuttings this month of all kinds of plants wanted for winter blooming, but do not allow the young plants to bloom before cold weather. Procure a shallow pot or pan with good drainage and fill it with fine leaf-mold and good garden soil and press flat. On this surface sprinkle the seeds of the primrose. Sift a dusting of soil and cover with a piece of glass. Set at the edge of the sunlight, but not in the direct rays. Water by setting the pot in a pan of water.

Cyclamen seeds should be sown during August and September in shallow boxes or pots. They prefer light, sandy soil and gentle heat. The seed is slow to germinate and when the seedlings are large enough to handle, they should be removed to similar boxes and the next shift is to pots. Place in a bright spot, but away from the sunshine.

The old-fashioned Madonna lily (Lilium candidum), which is often seen in rural districts, is one of the most beautiful and chaste lilies we have. It grows two or three feet high, and its sweet flowers grow in clusters.

Lily beds must be dug two feet deep, well drained and made light with some leaf mold, or add a much or sand.

GENERAL FARM NOTES

Dairy farming is the best soil fertility insurance.

There is no prospect of overstocking the dairy cow market.

Skim milk, if fed in normal quantities, will not cause bloat in calves.

Plans are worthless unless they are properly carried out after they are made.

The time to ship poultry is when the demand is good and the market is steady.

The big, chunky horse is the fellow that suffers from the heat most as a general rule.

Study to feed a balanced ration. Do not overlook the mineral value of each feed, especially for young stock.

Some form of power is necessary on the farm and nothing is more practical or convenient in the vast majority of cases than the gasoline engine.

FRIEND OF GARDENERS

Toad Is Worth Several Dollars a Season to Land Owner.

Especially Valuable to Greenhouse Men in Keeping Down Slugs, Thousand-Legged Worms and Other Harmful Insects.

(By R. G. WEATHERSTONE.)

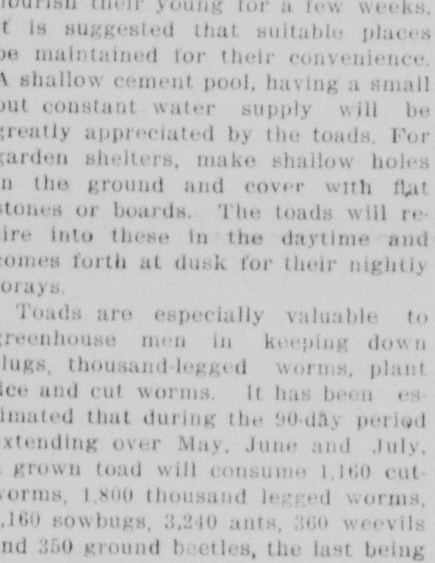

The writer, and no doubt many readers of this article, had heard the statement that each toad on a farm is worth several dollars a season to the land owner. It is difficult to place an exact value on any particular beneficial species, but we are learning more and more to appreciate the natural enemies of our destructive insects, and when one of them shows such distinctly beneficial habits as does the toad, it deserves special consideration. Snails, grasshoppers, ants, crickets, wireworms, potato beetles, cutworms, army worms, tent caterpillars and many others of equal importance have been found in the stomach of toads. According to one authority, 77 thousand-legged worms were found in one stomach, 37 tent caterpillars in another, 65 gypsy moth, caterpillars in another, and 55 army worms in a fourth. One toad had been known to eat 24 gypsy moth caterpillars in succession, and another was seen to devour 86 horseflies in less than ten minutes. Toads have many natural enemies, such as snakes, hawks, and the like, and numbers of them are killed by lawn mowers and farm machinery of various kinds. We can well afford to study toads with a view to giving them our protection. They should not be killed for sport, as many animals are, for they are too valuable. Since they must have water in which to place their eggs and nourish their young for a few weeks, it is suggested that suitable places be maintained for their convenience. A shallow cement pool, having a small but constant water supply will be greatly appreciated by the toads. For garden shelters, make shallow holes in the ground and cover with flat stones or boards. The toads will retire into these in the daytime and come forth at dusk for their nightly forays.

Toads are especially valuable to greenhouse men in keeping down slugs, thousand-legged worms, plant lice and cut worms. It has been estimated that during the 90-day period extending over May, June and July, a grown toad will consume 1,400 cut worms, 1,800 thousand-legged worms, 2,160 sowbugs, 3,240 ants, 360 weevils and 350 ground beetles, the last being beneficial insects. The total sum, therefore, for the 90 days is 360 beneficial insects and 9,720 injurious ones destroyed.

Why Use Plant Food?

The crops which you are growing average to mature in 60 to 90 days. The seasons are short. The plants must have their food every hour they are in the soil, and it must be available or they will not grow. If you think you can trust quick-growing crops on insoluble fertilizers, that is for you to determine; but in my judgment, taking the seasons as they go, wet and dry, hot and cold, you will find you will be the loser. You have to take a great risk as to the weather. That is the largest factor in raising crops. Can you afford to take any risk in the seed, the kind of fertilizer used, or the culture employed, factors over which you have control?

Disinfecting Cow Stables.

Disinfectants cannot destroy germs if they do not come into direct contact with them. Disinfectants should be applied in sufficient quantity to thoroughly saturate the surfaces, after the adhering particles of dirt are removed. In the application of the disinfectant in cow stables it is well to use a broom or stiff brush and thoroughly scrub the floor, feed troughs, scratches and lower parts of the walls.

The solution can be applied to the ceilings and upper parts of the side walls with a spray pump and must be carried into any crevice and recess into which dirt can enter.

Harbor for Rats.

Boards, posts or rubbish piled up near the poultry quarters, afford too good a harbor for rats.

YELLOW MALINES IN ORDER

Material Extremely Popular Just Now and Bids Fair to Remain in Fashion Some Time.

The yellow maline girl promises to be a feature of the world of fashion for the next month at least. Fashion is so fleeting that a longer period of popularity can scarcely be promised her. But surely this much is certain, that the tint of yellow between ecru and corn color, brighter than the first and lighter than the second, is in vogue, and is denoted on costumes by maline net accessories.

For the girl's hat it is used in ruffles and folds. For her neck it spreads butterfly wings in bows and floats over her shoulders in a light scarf for the evening.

This tint is used with white to such an extent as to lead to the coining of the phrase, "the summer daisy girl." The tart little bow of stiff maline, yellow of course, twisted about the handle of her parasol with three or four large white artificial daisies, helps to make her in keeping with this name.

A word more is in order about the scarves of this flimsy, slimy material. They are made of the widest goods in the tint to be had, and are cut very long, full two yards and a half, sometimes three yards. The ends are cut straight and left unhemmed, and the scarf is worn over the shoulders or within the cloak in as fluffy a mass as possible, not crushed down. The result is a rather ethereal, wrapped-in-the-clouds effect.

Flesh tints are also popular for these scarves, and some other shades are used as well. The dampness of sea nights is fatal to their loveliness, but for those elsewhere they are wearable and charming.

STYLES IN FALL MILLINERY

Forecast Seems to Make Sure That Small and Medium-Sized Hats Are to Take the Lead.

Small and medium-sized hats will take the lead. There will be a variety of shapes, but the most prominent are the sailor, mushroom poke, and the small hat with the left side rolling brim. Sailors are many times given a poke effect. The front brim is often made shorter than the back, and a slight bend in the center front gives a decidedly poke effect. The mushroom poke is small, and the brim is perfectly straight. The crown is medium high and soft. This applies to nearly all fall shapes.

The season will start out with fabric-covered hats of moire, satin, taffeta, panne velvet and maline. Malines will be extensively used in the trimming of fall hats in the form of bows and pleatings. Bias double ruffles of malines are often used to finish the edges of the brims.

Extensive use of ribbon is promised. High standing bows, with the highest loop measuring fourteen inches, will be seen. The butterfly bow is composed of four wired loops with rounded edges. Two of the loops are in the center, with one on either side. The windmill bow, similar in shape to half a windmill, is generally made of ribbon, while the butterfly bow is of maline or crepe.

High-standing front or back trimmings are preferred. Bows of malines or ribbon are almost always placed at the front or back, never at the side of a hat. Coque and quills will be the prominent feather trimmings, and are made in novelty form. They will be arranged in the direct front or back with bows of ribbon.

DAINTY MORNING DRESS

Model of White Cotton Crepe With Tiny Red Flowers and Buds. Loose Blouse With Lingerie Vest. Wide Belt of White Satin.

Ribbons on Bags.

The wrist ribbon has almost taken the place of the strap on the modish handbags. Ribbons appear on leather bags as well as on silk ones. They are certainly more in keeping with the hot weather, says the Washington Herald, and they can easily be renewed when too frequent use wears them threadbare.

POULTRY

PROFITABLE AS EGG LAYER

Brown Leghorn Hen, Six Years Old, Stops Laying Just Long Enough to Hatch Out Brood.

As to the age limit of profitable egg production there are many exceptions to this rule. Some hens are never profitable egg producers, while others may be profitable for years. I have a three-fourths grade Brown Leghorn that is nearly six years old and she has not stopped laying since early last spring long enough to hatch a brood of chickens, says a writer in an exchange. She got broody last April and was given eggs, but she sat but a few days until she quit her nest and was laying again in a short time. She has been almost a continual layer up to this date, and is still laying. Much of the time she laid an egg every day.

The regular profit of $1 per fowl seems to satisfy the average poultryman. This is wrong, for no one should be satisfied in any line of work.

Rose Comb Brown Leghorn.

but constantly striving for better results and larger profits. Two and three dollars per fowl is a possible profit and is being attained by some men in the poultry business today.

The secret does not lie in the fowl or the variety, but in the human brain. Let us all study more carefully the rules and principles that govern poultry culture. Let us strive to increase the profit in our flocks, and thus each year set up a new standard for the succeeding year. By thought, perseverance and persistence great things can be accomplished with poultry.

INJURIOUS HABITS OF HENS

Pulling and Eating of Each Other's Feathers May Be Cured by Allowing Them Free Range.

Sometimes a flock of hens acquire the habit of pulling and eating each other's feathers. In some cases they are so bad that the flesh of the fowls become torn and sore, and the whole flock is nearly naked.

When they first show the signs of this vice measures should promptly be taken to cure them.

The trouble is caused by too closely confining the fowls and allowing them to be idle. Where possible they should be turned on the range where the fascination of chasing bugs and eating the green stuff will make them forget the bad habit.

When they cannot be turned out they should be made to scratch for their grain in deep litter. Bundles of wheat or oats, or sunflower heads may be hung up just high enough that they will have to work to get the seeds. Give them some turnips or mangle beets or cabbage heads to work at—anything to keep them in exercise and busy. Feed them plenty of green food, meat, meal, beef scraps and green cut bone.

Rub carbolic vaseline on the plucked fowls where the feathers have been pulled out.

POULTRY NOTES

Cleanliness is more important than medicine for poultry.

Plenty of buttermilk and clabber saves buying meat scraps.

Sanitation is the great chick remedy. In other words, prevention.

Patient attention to the little things is what makes success with poultry.

Call all your young chickens, keeping those nearest to the standard of perfection.

Late hatched chickens need as much care as early ones; don't think they can rustle a living.

The goose is a grazing bird, while the duck thrives with a limited amount of green food.

For table it pays to hatch chicks from February to November, but the number should be limited.

If duck eggs are set under the hens from this time on, it will be best to make the nest on the ground.

Remember that fowls that "look alike" will attract better attention and sell better than the hit and miss kind.

About the best remedy for scaly legs, which is the work of parasites, is an application of melted lard and sulphur once a week.

Drinking troughs need frequent looking after in summer. Nothing like a filthy water or feed trough to breed disease in hot weather.

Fred less corn and other grain than you did during the winter. The birds feed largely on worms and insects while they are running on range.

SOFT SILKS FOR FALL

NEED BE NO DOUBT ABOUT THE TREND OF FASHION.

Paris Has Declared in No Uncertain Way What Materials Are to Be in Favor—Smart Wraps Already Being Shown.

All the soft satiny silks are in favor for fall frocks—charmeuse, crepe meteor, crepe de chine and brocade crepe retaining their place in popular esteem; but the satiny silks with a wee rib in the weave-like faile and the new silk, called duvetine, are the ultra smart novelties in this line; and tussah is much used.

One of the frocks illustrated is of crepe meteor, made with draped skirt, ornamented down the blouse and skirt front with a double row of small round material buttons. The blouse and sleeves are trimmed with colored embroidery.

At the race meets in Paris

there were a great many frocks of taffeta worn, reminding one of chiffon or moire, being so pliable and soft. There were frocks of taffeta moire, draped gracefully and made with handsome sashes of different fabric. The skirts were draped up in graceful style, while the blouses puffed very loose over the girdle of sash. The frock usually had tails or lined chemise.

Most women of conservative taste prefer plain, soft shades for autumn wear, but there are fascinating modern art silks for little bridge and luncheon frocks—silks exquisitely soft and satiny in texture and having odd printings in post impressionist patterns on rich-hued grounds. One in mind at the moment is a magenta-toned silk with tiny flowerpots and pansies in blue and purple scattered over the surface.

Tulle and net frills make the bodices of new fall frocks full and thick about the neck, and rare indeed is the bodice that does not divide at the front to show a fichu-vest of soft tulle, lace or net. The Marie Stuart frill, standing up at the back, lends a certain dignity, which, in combination with the simple, draped lines of the modern costume, is charming. Most women of conservative taste will be glad that the opulent Oriental modes are passing, and a period of more refined and classic costume is at hand.

Many smart little wraps for early fall wear are being shown in the shops. One shop has on view a magnificent wrap of Florentine real brocade interwoven with gold and silver.

Another, which is shown, was a short wrap for afternoon wear of silver-white broadcloth, embroidered in matching shade. There was a wide flat velvet bow placed at the opening at neck.

Another attractive little wrap is made of beige rose colored satin. There is a hood edged with ruche of the material, and lined with colored silk in flower design.

Still another is of purple charmeuse, combined with brocade material of the same tone. The body of the cloak was of the brocade material, while the deep cape collar, cuffs and bottom of the coat were of the plain material.

MARY DEAN.

Wedding Presents.

"An interesting gift to a bride-to-be—or, indeed, to any woman—is a leather glove case filled with gloves."

One such case, which costs about $5, is of dark green leather. It contains a glove stretcher and a button. It also contains pockets to accommodate half a dozen pairs of gloves. Another such case holds the stretcher on the cover, and this box is big enough to hold two or three dozen pairs of gloves. Nothing more acceptable as a gift could be given to any woman than a case of this sort, stocked either to overflowing, or holding only one or two pairs of attractive gloves.

Square Necks Worn.

A pleasant bodice cut out square to the bust line and filled in with folds of soft chiffon or net is gradually winning by a neck over the pointed décolleté. As with all necks, whether round, square or V-shaped, it has its omnipresent ruche of plaited lace or net, and an original note on some of these gowns shows a fall of lace in the middle of the back from the upstanding de Medici ruff—a jabot worn behind.

BETTER THAN GREAT FORTUNE

Knowledge That One Always Played the Game Fairly Is a Comforting Thing to Have.

A contributor to the American Magazine says:

"When you get up in the morning take a look in the glass. How do you look to yourself?"

"If you can look yourself right in the eye and not be ashamed of anything you've done, you are far better off than many a man with lots more money than you."

"Of course, it is nice to be successful, to have money. No matter what the game is—whether it's marbles or business—it is nicer to win than to lose. Success brings happiness, but it must be real success. If you've cheated to win, you've destroyed the pleasure. There is no satisfaction in being ahead of the other fellow if down in your heart of hearts you know he is rightfully entitled to be ahead of you."

"Win if you can win fairly. The knowledge that there isn't a page in your past to which you dare not turn, that there isn't a man in the world can put his finger on any crooked thing you've done, the feeling that whatever happens you have played the game straight, is worth more than all the money and all the power and all the position in the world."

"If you are in business, no matter what the other fellow does, be content with smaller profits and a square deal. Clean money pays best. Crooked dividends bring wrinkles and worries with them."

"A good test of a business is what you are going to think of yourself afterward."

LITTLE SHORT OF MARVELOUS

Series of Miraculous Escapes From What Would Seem to Be Inevitable Death.

At Geneva recently a professional acrobat who performs on a trapeze attached to a balloon fell into the Lake of Zurich, a distance of 1,500 feet. He swam unhurt to the shore, just missing death by a few yards, for had he not sprung from his seat when within 50 feet of the lake he would have been dashed to pieces on the rocks.

Several instances of people falling from incredible heights and surviving to tell the tale can be quoted. At Brighton quite recently an actor known as Lieutenant Daring, who was playing the part of a naval officer who is attacked by brigands in a cinematograph play, and who was supposed to slip over the cliff—in reality, however, to stand on a plank which had been placed below the edge to make the illusion complete—missed his footing and fell 90 feet below into the sea, escaping with a sprained wrist.

An even more miraculous escape after a fall over a cliff was that of a seven-year-old child who had been gathering flowers on Culver cliff, near Sandown, Isle of Wight, who slipped and fell 200 feet. She was only slightly injured, a bottle which she carried being unbroken.

Glories of Ancient Buildings.

The famous Temple of Diana, at Ephesus, was 420 feet to the support of the roof; it was a hundred years in building. The largest of the Pyramids is 481 feet in height and 35 feet on the side. The base covered 11 acres. The stones are about 60 feet in length, and the layers are 208. It employed 350,000 men in building. The labyrinth of Egypt contains 320 chambers and 12 halls. Thebes, in Egypt, presents ruins 27 miles around, and contained 350,000 citizens and 400,000 slaves. The Temple of Delphos was so rich in donations that it was plundered of $50,000,000, and the Emperor Nero carried away from it 200 statues. The walls of ancient Rome were 13 miles around.

Dog Caused Boy's Death.

A boy was drowned by a dog he had on a leash jumping into the water and dragging him and his brother, walking with him, after it. The boys and a companion were walking along the towing path of the canal, at Rochdale, Lancashire, England, and had passed the lock, before the accident happened. An alarm was at once raised, and one of the brothers was speedily rescued by some boys who were playing near. An elder brother of the boys came on the scene and plunged into the canal. He succeeded in finding the other body, but artificial respiration proved unavailing.

Unearth Bones of Roman Soldiers.

The discovery has been announced from Rome, Italy, of a large ossuary, or place for the deposit of the bones of the dead, near the port of the Lamon. The discovery is on the scene of the battle of Telamon, fought in the year 225 B. C., during the invasion of Italy by the Gauls, when the invading hordes were defeated by the Romans. The ruins of a Temple of Thanksgiving, erected by the Romans in memory of this victory, were unearthed in 1892. Further important discoveries are expected as a result of the present excavations.

"Let Jane Do It"

"Let Jane do it" is the new law in California since women got the vote. "Nowadays," says Miss Helen Todd of San Francisco, "when a man is approached by political slave drivers, who ask him to serve on all kinds of tiresome committees, he just says: 'Well, I'm too busy, boys; just ask my wife—she knows more about it than I do, anyway.'"—From "Below the Rio Grande."

Wedding in June. He had just popped the question. "You take me by surprise," stammered the young woman. "Dearest, I'm glad to get you in any way," he came back promptly. And she let it go at that.

Telling it. "I knew by the way our deaf and dumb neighbor was using the sign language that she was happy." "Why was she happy, do you suppose?" "Because she had a secret on hand."

No Use. "Please, ma'am, the cook says she wants some more crash for the kitchen." "Ask her what has become of all I heard out there since she began washing the dishes."

Asphalt Known to Ancients. Asphalt was known to the ancients, and this material is said to have been employed as a binder in masonry by the Babylonians.

Farmers Plow at Night. Farmers in New South Wales frequently plow by night with traction engines provided with powerful headlights.

His Windward Anchor. And many a man's wonderful self-control is due to the fact that he has a helpmeet.

DRAPING MOTOR VEIL

AUTO NECESSITY HAS BEEN MADE A THING OF BEAUTY.

Charm is All in the Manner in Which the Chiffon is Adjusted, and Femininity Has Made the Most of It.

The motor car is responsible for a lot of the most alluring little styles that ever were. All the clever little caps and bonnets are so becoming and so comfortable there is no telling where they will lead the feminine world to in the matter of headgear.

When a man gets himself up for motoring he usually looks like a death's-head at the wheel or a monster from some other planet. You look at him and think of dusty roads, flying gravel and fearsome speed. But the auto togs of women are delightfully suggestive of pleasant drives and jolly times.

It is the veil that makes possible this triumph for the gentler sex. And here is the very latest way of wearing it!

It looks like the Persian veil or wherever in the far Orient the idea came from. You see, the goggles may be put on with it when necessary—and taken off very easily any time; which is a good thing, for no stretch of the imagination can make them things of beauty. Like a number of things in this world, usefulness is their only reason for being here; hence they are dispensed with whenever possible.

This veil is just a two-yard length of veiling chiffon hemmed at the ends and tacked or otherwise fastened to one of the many soft caps and bonnets that are provided for the motorist. If you choose to go to the extreme of the mode you can follow out the oriental suggestion in the veil and wear a turban of silk wrapped about your head.

NEEDS OF THE SMALL GIRL

Simplicity Combined With Comfort Should Be the Idea in Fashioning Attire for Children.

Do not sacrifice utility and practical usefulness to fashion, and yet secure individuality and artistic grace, which is a necessary attribute of children. Simplicity combined with comfort should characterize the attire of little people. Children are no longer dressed in garments which prevent free movement of the limbs. Material and style are all important. The fabric should be soft and durable. Low price in materials for children's wear is an extravagance, for a cheap stuff always looks what it is, and does not wear well. Linens, pique, chambrays and ginghams are all good, and they can be bought in tempting colors, well worth the having.

One-piece dresses are best for children from one to twelve years of age. They fall easily from the shoulders, and all pinafare frocks are easily made. Gimpes are a great invention, as they may be changed so often to freshen a frock. Instead of being made yoke depth, the gimpes should be extended to the waist on summer dresses. They are easily made at home.

It is surprising how much these little articles cost when purchased ready made. Lawn, tucked batiste, swiss, dimity, lace, allover embroidery, cross-bar materials, nets, etc., may be used for gimpes. Be careful that nothing is fantastic, for children are very sensitive as to ridicule. They look charming in picturesque dresses, and all the clear, pure colors suit them. Tans and buff color, and most greens wash well and are cool looking.

To Set Colors. To set colors, use salt, vinegar, sugar or lead or alum in the following proportions: To one gallon of water, one-half of a cupful of vinegar, or two cupfuls of salt, or two tablespoonfuls of alum or one tablespoonful of sugar of lead. Salt is usually best for browns and reds, vinegar for pinks; sugar of lead for lavenders, and alum for blues. The best way is to make a test of the solution. Let a sample remain in a solution over night. Allow to dry, then wash. Drying after setting a color prevents fading.

New Shoe Buckles. The most up-to-date shoe buckles are of French brass filigree with settings in Bulgarian colors. The prices for these concells range from $3.50 to $7 a pair.

Malaria. Malaria has been recognized since the days of Hippocrates as one of the most formidable and destructive of maladies, the more formidable because it was supposed, in accordance with the name which Macculloch adopted for it from the Italian less than a century ago, to be caused by a pervasive vapor in the air. But since the epochal observations of Laveran, the labors of Golgi and his colleagues and the experiments and discoveries of Ross, it has lost much of its mysterious terror, and the sure way to its prevention and extirpation has been revealed.

The First "Deadheads." Very few are aware that the origin of the word "deadhead" takes us back to the theaters of Ancient Rome. R. H. Broadhead, in "A History of Pantomime," gives the following realistic explanation. He says: "Persons were instructed to give applause with skill. The proficient hired themselves out to the poets, authors, etc., and were so disposed as to support a loud applause. . . . The free admission tickets were small ivory death's heads, and specimens of these are to be seen in the Museum of Naples."

Ancient City Under the Sea. The Greek ministry of marine states that Lieutenant Bakopulos, while carrying out the observations entailed by the naval duties assigned to him, happened to notice on the sea bottom to the east of the Island of Lemnos, on the reefs marked on the British admiralty charts under the name of the Pharos bank, at a depth of from five to twenty-five meters, some ancient ruins which were perfectly visible and prove the existence of a town about three miles in circumference.

Potash From Feldspar. German Potash interests are perturbed over the news from Stockholm that a scientist has discovered a process for producing potash from common feldspar. There have been many attempts in Germany to extract commercial potash from the many minerals containing it, but up to the present they have not been successful. The Swedish method at its present stage is understood to be too expensive from a commercial standpoint.

His Confession. Once a clergyman went to pay a visit to an old Yorkshire yeoman, who was lying on his deathbed. After a few preliminary words, the worthy minister said that, if the veteran had anything on his mind, he hoped he would ease his conscience and confide it to his pastor's ear, so that he might die in peace. "Well, sir," answered the old sportsman, "if I only had to live my life over again, I'd fish more with bait and less with flies."
